January, 2021

Advent has always been a season of waiting. From a purely practical point of view, it is waiting for Christmas to come. Waiting to sing the Christmas hymns that are so precious to us. For our younger members, waiting for the time they can open presents. Waiting for Christ to come.

Having grown up in the Lutheran Church, I have always known this about Advent, that it is a time of waiting for the celebration of the coming of Christ. My pastor would not light up the Christmas tree until Christmas Eve. Until then it was still dark. We would not sing any Christmas Hymns until Christmas Eve. I remember waiting with great anticipation for Christmas Eve when we would do our children's pageant, and get a bag of nuts and candy afterwards. I'm not sure which I looked forward to more. I also could not wait for the late evening service, so we could sing Silent Night with only the candles lit. There was a lot of waiting going on.

As I got older a different waiting made itself clear. I began to see the connection between Christmas and Easter. We celebrate Advent right before Christmas, but we don't really get to the true gift of God until Easter. The reason we celebrate Christ Jesus becoming flesh and blood is so that flesh might be nailed to a cross, and that blood might flow from his pierced side. I began to realize that there is a reason the images that we see are of Jesus in a manger and Jesus on a Cross. These were the two events that were bookends of His purpose on earth. To share our flesh and blood, so that he could share in our deaths. But more than that, through his death he could share with us salvation. That was what all of humanity was waiting for. It became clearer and clearer as I understood the prophecies about Jesus from the Old Testament.

The Jesse Tree devotions that we have been using this season, connect us to all those years of waiting for God to fulfill his promises. The image of the ram and Isaac being put on the altar are some of the most memorable from this season. Abraham did a lot of waiting for Isaac, and then God asks him to sacrifice his only son. I also think there was a lot of waiting and praying as Abraham and Isaac climb the mountain, waiting for God to provide the sacrifice, which he did then and also 2000 years later when HE sacrificed HIS only Son for the salvation of the whole world, not just one child.

Recently I have been struck by the final aspect of waiting that is emphasized in Advent, the waiting for Christ to return in His glory. Of course, I have always known that Jesus would come again, but I never really spent much time thinking about it. In High School I met some Christians who seemed to think about the end of the world all the time in an obsessive way. It was also presented as a frightening time, a time of fear.

Now with all of the chaos that is going on in our nation, it seems that people are again thinking that the time of waiting is coming to an end, and maybe it is. As I have often said in my preaching, we have always been close to the end, because we do not know the time or the day. It could happen at any time. In the past I have thought that I hope God waits to come again, at least until I finish high school, or get married, or have kids, or now have grandkids.

It was something that I knew would happen, but I wasn't looking with eager anticipation for it to come soon.

That has changed. Maybe it is because I am getting older, but I honestly believe it is because I am understanding the hope better. Things in this world will never get better. There will always be sin, there will always be wars and rumors of wars. There will always be strife and worry. No one is going to be able to fix the problems of this world...except Christ. He died to fix all the problems of this world, but we do not get to see the fullness of it until he comes again, so until that time we wait.

I am now waiting with Joyful anticipation, because I finally understand what it means to hope in the Lord. Our hope is not just for an easy life, or a successful one, our hope is for a new life. A life with Christ, where every tear is wiped away and every sorrow is gone. A life where we have the greatest gift every day of our lives, Christ with us. What a glorious day that will be.

As I have been thinking about the joyful hope that is within me, I turned to the very last verses of the Bible. Revelation 22:20-21 "He who testifies to these things says, 'Surely I am coming soon.' Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen." Amen. Come Lord Jesus! This is my prayer every day. I cannot wait for the day when I will see my Lord face to face and every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord. What a wonderful day that will be. The anticipation is killing me. This is one present that will never disappoint. This is the greatest Christmas gift of all. Amen. Come quickly Lord Jesus.

Pastor Pooch

Christmas and Advent Decoration Removal will be Saturday, January 9th at 9:00 am.

Thank you for your help in decorating the church this past year. Now it is time for decoration removal, so we will be needing some Volunteers' time and help to prepare the church for 2021. In the past, we've had a great turnout which makes the task much easier. We can usually accomplish the work in less than 2 hours. Please mark your calendars and come join us. If you have any questions, contact Dennis Steinke at 815-289-0057.

DIVINE WORSHIP SERVICE HOURS

WEDNESDAYS AT 5:00 PM

Greetings from our house to yours.

Your many thoughts, prayers and cards have been very supportive. These past months have brought many thoughts of God's grace and our faith. We are adjusting well to our new home here in Port St. Lucie. Being close to our son's family has help tremendously. I was able to spend Thanksgiving with him and our daughter came over from Naples for the weekend. We have both established new primary care doctors and will be seeing a new Cardiologist next month. The doctors has said it can take a few months to get back to something more normal. Thank you for keeping Cheryl in your prayers.

We surely miss all our friends in Bradenton Sarasota area and church family at Faith Lutheran. We are still looking for a new church, but I find they are not as traditional as Faith. They have a combination of traditional and contemporary services. We have found Prayers do work. I want to give a shout out and our prayers to my cousin Donald Fulton in Mentor Ohio. He is suffering in the final stages from ALS. Don is at peace with God and the Lord Jesus who comforts us in all our troubles,

with the comfort we ourselves receive from God."*

IN RECOGNITION OF THOSE WHO HAVE SERVED ON THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND MEMORIAL COMMITTEES

This past year has proven to be a busier year than usual for our church and particularly our Board of Trustees. Many important renovations and projects have been completed thanks to the efforts of those volunteering their time and knowledge in keeping our church in top notch condition.

Our philosophy has been that if we as trustees could handle a repair or replacement, we would. If it was beyond our capabilities, we would use our outside commercial contractors to get the job done. It worked very well and proves to be the best plan of action, with the best results.

I would like to recognize those who have given of their time and talents in our efforts: Jack Conte, Paul Ryden, Tony Bowen, Martha Riedl, Richard Wormald, Dave Benson, Jerry Gibson (who recently rejoined the Trustees), Gordon Crepeaux (who passed away earlier this year) and myself. I had the honor of serving on the Trustees, the past 4 years, and as head Trustee for the past 7-8 months. I can attest to the fact, this was not a one man job, but the sharing of ideas and physical effort of many to get the job done. I found communication with Council members to be imperative.

I want to recognize the countless efforts of Margaret and Wilma in the office who made my job so much easier and successful.

I relied on them many times. A big thank you to Rick and Teena Ross for their dedicated work in keeping our church clean and always ready for the next service.

Thanks to Pastor Pooch and the entire Church Council for their support on sharing of ideas.

I would also like to recognize those who served with me the past four years on the Memorial Committee, which has recently been reorganized: Paul Ryden, Judy Gosman, Darrell Krohn and Brenda Lovett.

Thank you and God Bless each of you for your devoted service to Our Lord.

Respectfully submitted,

Gary Bonadurer
